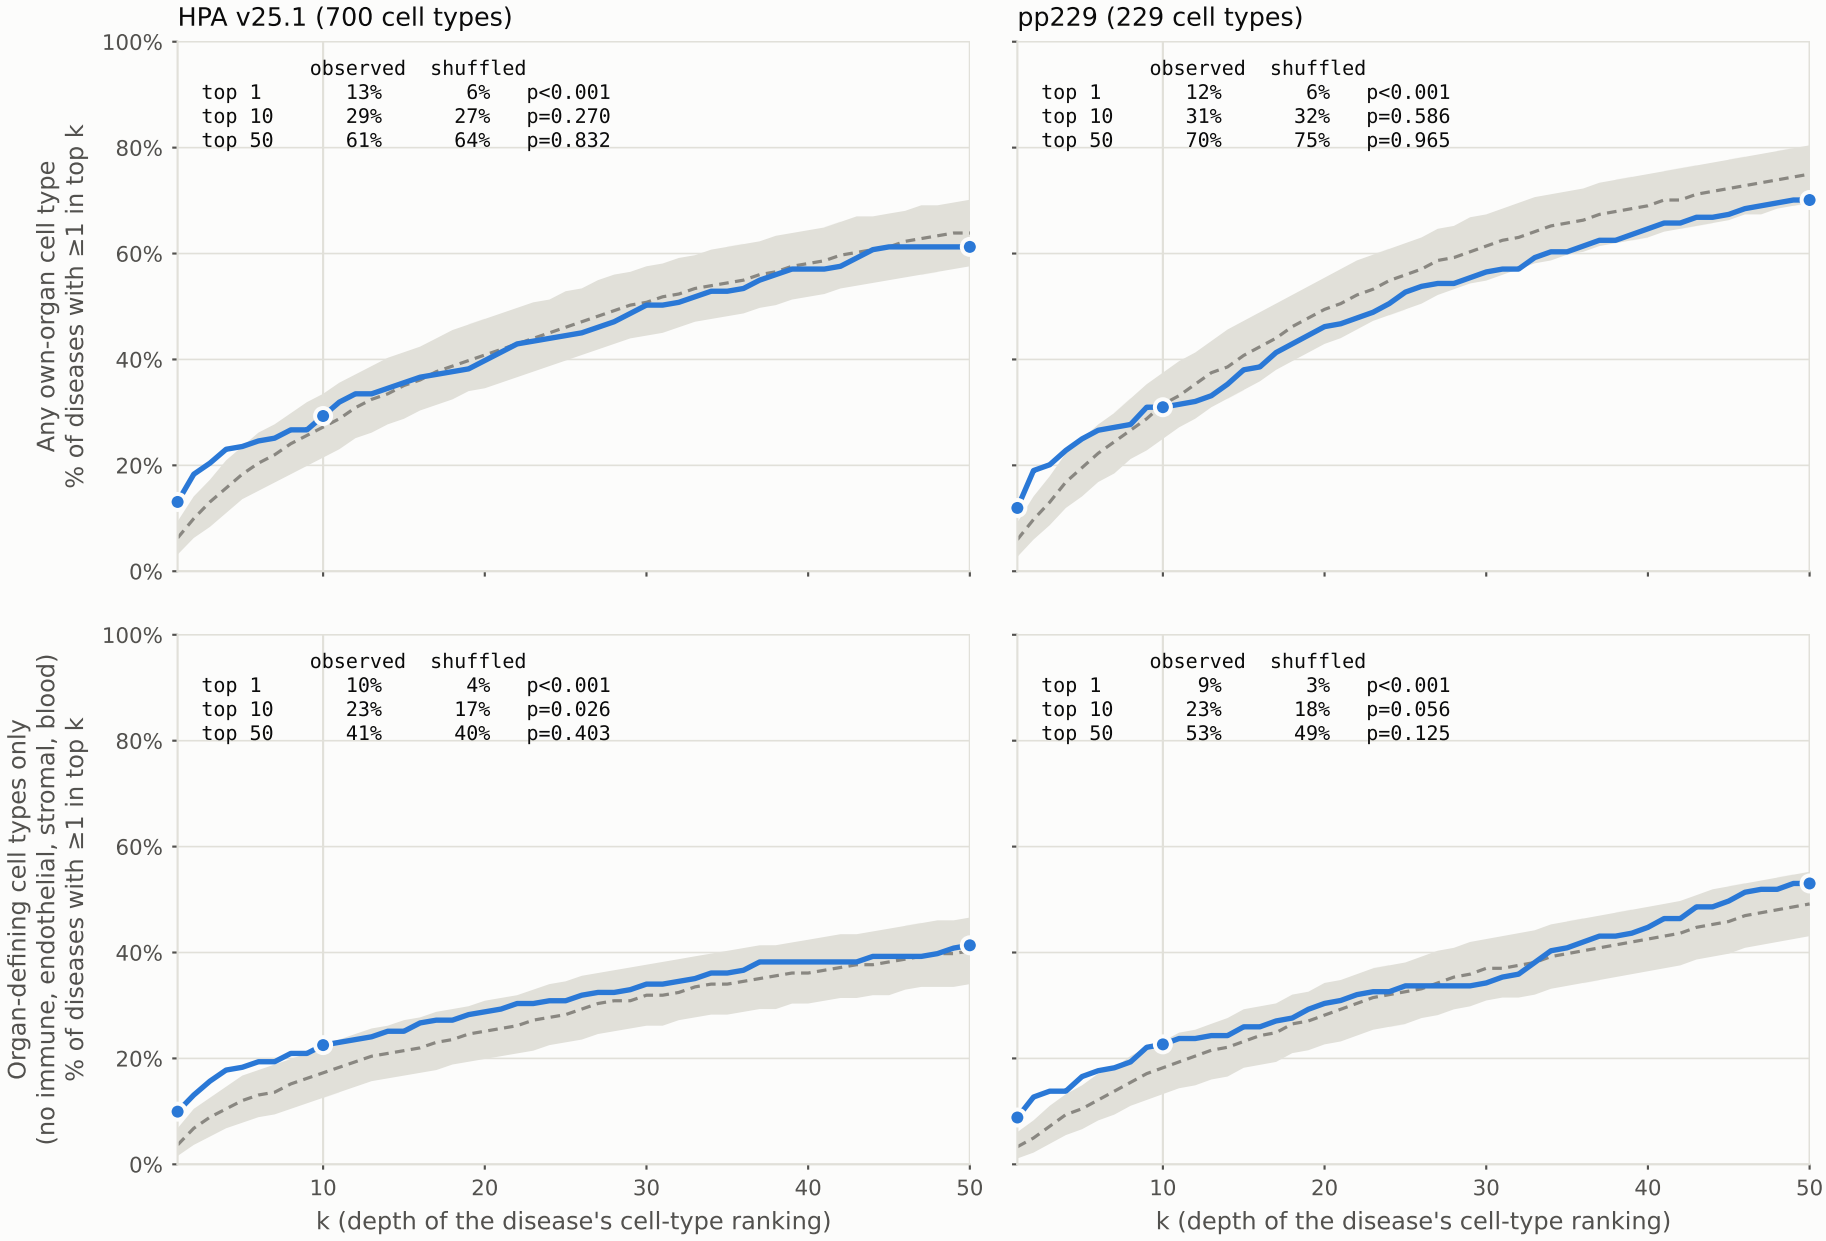
How deep do you have to look to find the disease's own organ?


Blue line: share of diseases with at least one own-organ cell type among their top k (ranked by disease-specific z).
Gray dashed line and band: the same with organ assignments shuffled across diseases (median, 95% of 2000 shuffles). p = share of shuffles at least as high.