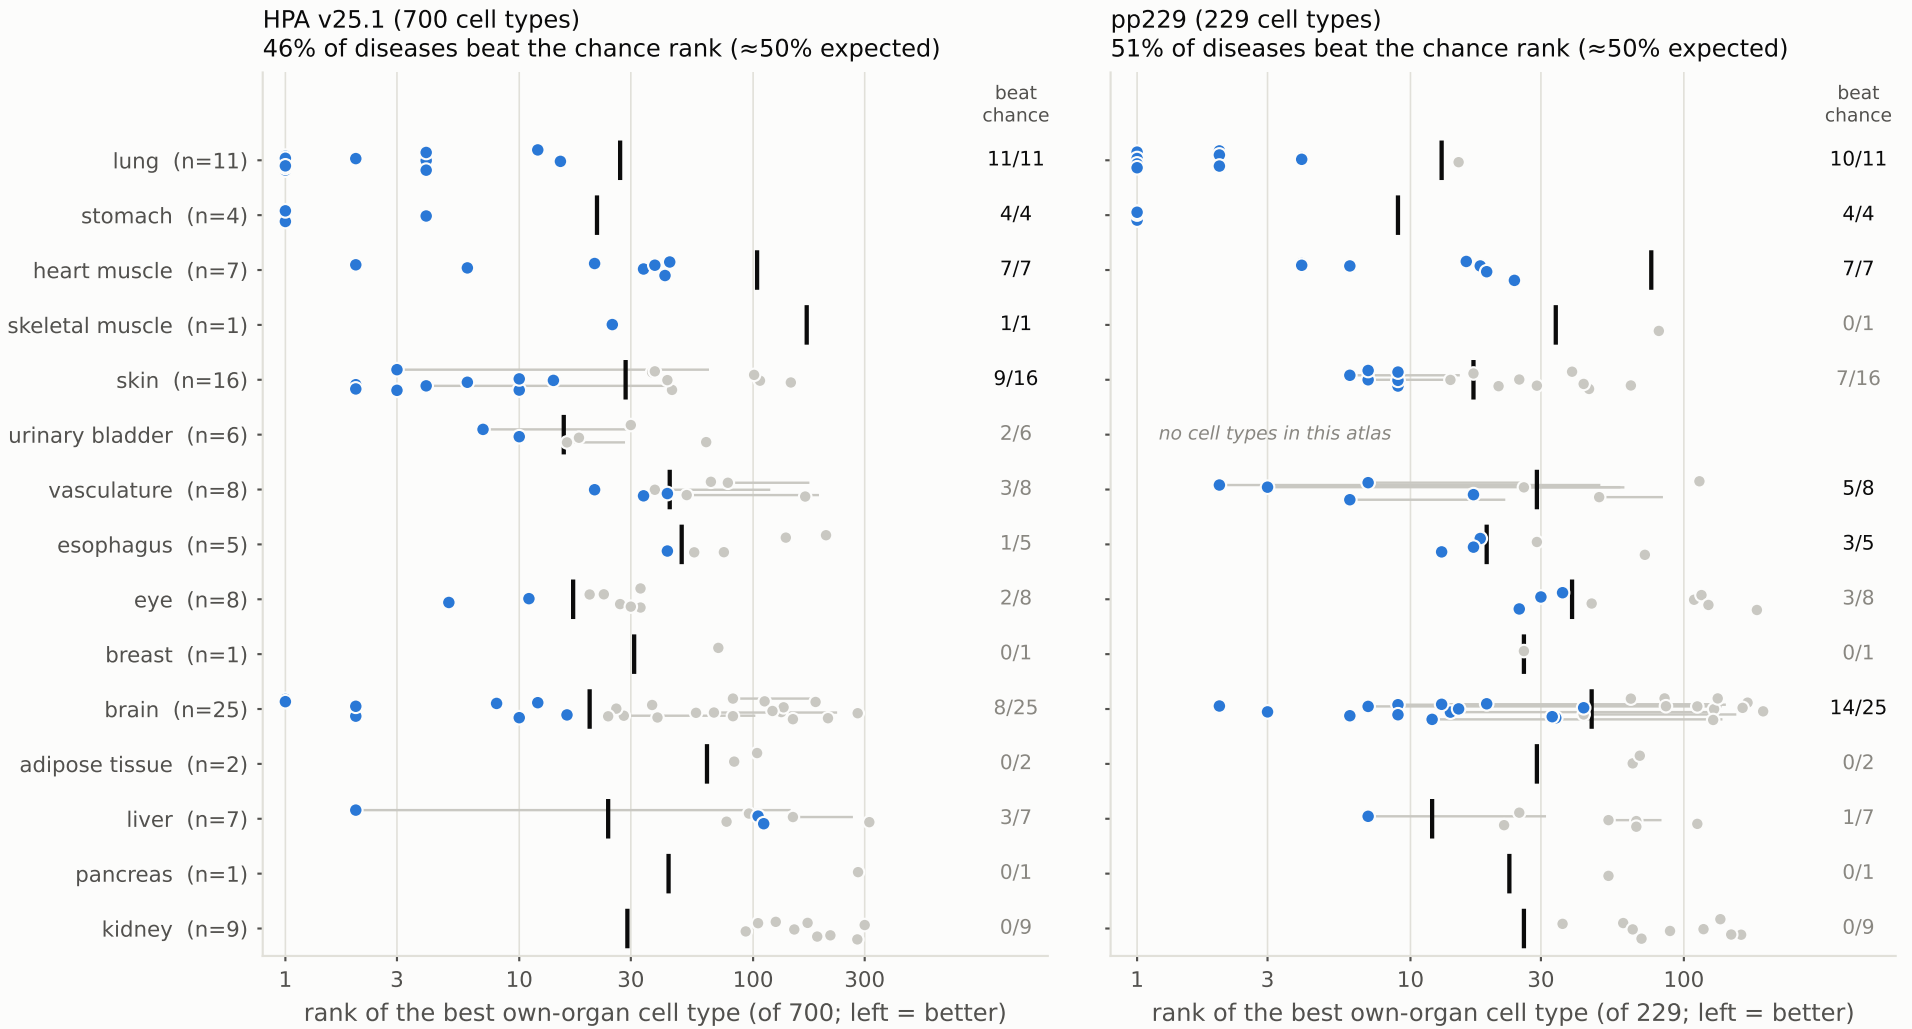
Per disease: where does its best own-organ cell type rank? (primary + secondary organs)


One dot per single-primary-organ disease (rows = its primary organ), as in Figure 3, but the best rank is taken over its primary + secondary organs' cell types.
Hairline = the improvement over the primary-only rank. Black tick = chance for the widened set (median best rank across the other diseases). Blue = better than chance.